Air Force	1	Victim and Retaliator are coworkers at the Base Pharmacy. Victim claimed she had the alleged retaliation three things: (1) that Victim was sexually assaulted while deployed and (2) Victim acted as a witness in a different sexual assault investigation (the alleged offender for both of these assaults is deceased). A CID was conducted in the aftermath of a complaint against the Retaliator. The allegation of retaliation was not substantiated because there was no direct evidence. Retaliator knew that Victim (1) was sexually assaulted while on duty and (2) was a witness in a different sexual assault investigation while on duty. Retaliator's actions were taken as a result of the CID.	(4) Coercion or Intimidation	(1) Unrestricted Report of Sexual Assault	(1) Victim of Alleged Sexual Assault or Complaint of Alleged Sexual Harassment	(2) Female	(2) Female	(4) Alleged retaliator is a peer - co-worker, friend, or family member of the retaliation reporter	(7) Alleged perpetrator is uninvolved/investigation ongoing	(6) MED Administrative	(3) Chain of Command	(4) Allegations unsubstantiated (administrative investigation)	(1) Yes, results provided to the reporter		NA	(1) Ineffective evidence of any offense to prosecute
Air Force	2a	The basis for retaliation complaint is that reporter had previously assisted a female E-4 in unit to make a formal complaint of sexual harassment against an E-4 in unit. The complaint the E-4 made was thoroughly investigated and substantiated by CID. With regard to reporter's claim, it was founded in fact. First, a female E-4 in their squadron was told not to talk to the reporter. The E-4 was told not to talk to the reporter because of a perceived professional relationship with reporter. Second, the reporter was not permitted to be part of a discussion about an Airman in the unit who had failed a PT test (reporter was not the Airman's supervisor). Third, the squadron commander removed him from responsibilities related to the base air show and barred him from a meeting related to same (the duties were reassigned to the CID for the CID's benefit). Finally, reporter perceived the squadron commander was ignoring her in the unit. Reporter had all four items met in retaliation for assisting the E-4 in filing the sexual harassment complaint. Reporter made a formal complaint to IG against her flight DNCO, her flight CID and the squadron commander. The group commander appointed a CID at direction of IG. All allegations of retaliation and coercion were substantiated. Air Force	4	A traditional gathering alleged that while attending the squadron annual ball dancing, she was sexually assaulted by the unit's Platoon Sergeant. The victim was a friend, involved actively in the unit, above the assault and not under the supervision of a superior member within the unit. An investigation was conducted and the victim was reassigned to another position within the Wing. The victim received a Letter of Reprimand from CID with a note for having her husband stay with her in a double occupancy sleeping room, drinking and smoking, talking to her in the unit, being with her daily, having a male woman in her sleeping room, and keeping her chain of command and reporting to the squadron commander above the victim. The victim alleged the punishment was due to her having alleged a sexual assault. An independent investigation by the service inspector general determined that the punishment action was not done in reprisal. The CID IG approved the service CID's finding.
