

Safe HelpRoom Sessions for Military Men

Are you a man who has experienced unwanted sexual contact or touching? You are not alone. Join us and hear from other men who have gone through similar experiences.

Who: Military men who have experienced unwanted sexual contact or touching.

What: Safe HelpRoom sessions specifically for men to connect with other men who have similar experiences with unwanted sexual contact. Safe HelpRoom is a group chat service that allows sexual assault survivors in the military to connect with, and support one another in a moderated and anonymous online environment.

When: Every Wednesday in February

Feb 1 - 1000-1200
Feb 8 - 1900-2100
Feb 15 - 0100-0300
Feb 22 - 0700-0900
(all times listed are EST)

Where: Join the conversation online at www.safehelproom.org.

Why: These sessions provide a space where survivors of sexual assault can connect with one another to provide peer-to-peer support. Here, men are able to talk to each other and explore their experiences.

Members of the DoD community who have been affected by sexual assault can access 24/7, confidential, anonymous support through the DoD Safe Helpline, or by calling 877-995-5247. Safe Helpline is operated by RAINN through a contract with the DoD and provides no personally identifiable information to the DoD or your chain of command.
