ABOUT ELIZABETH BLANC

Elizabeth 'Liz' Blanc

Liz was a dear friend, respected colleague, and loving mother and wife, who dedicated her professional life to supporting victims of sexual assault. Even through a long battle with cancer, Liz continued to advocate tirelessly for others. Liz's dedicated service began in her role as a Sexual Assault Response Coordinator for the Department of the Navy for more than nine years. She went on to join DoD SAPRO in 2016 as the Safe Helpline Program Manager. Liz then assumed the Senior Victim Assistance Advisor position for SAPRO in 2019, overseeing all victim assistance programs for the Department. Her legacy lives on with her family, the many survivors she supported, and the professionals in the field who strive to continuously uphold the same high standards of commitment, service, and professionalism she exemplified.
